

Beds That Last a Lifetime

When you select a bed, it should be with the thought of using it a number of years.

A bed is one article of furniture that you insist upon being correct from the start. And you want assurance of its lasting qualities.

We will show you a wide selection of just such beds. Their long wear is a matter we can guarantee.

See the Line of Brass Beds that we are showing in our windows this week. Then step into the store and get the prices.

Nearly a dozen members of the Philistia class of the Congregational church journeyed up Trow hill yesterday afternoon to the Crow's Nest, near the Hutchinson residence, and there enjoyed their annual picnic. Lunches were taken by the picnicers and a supper in the form of a basket lunch was served. Thereafter games were in order, followed by a corn roast later in the evening. The party broke up around 10 o'clock, all pronouncing it a decided success and voting unanimously to hold another such affair next year.

A near accident occurred last night at the junction of Washington, Elm and North Main streets when an unlighted automobile speeding up North Main and thence onto Washington street dodged in front of another machine coming from Elm street. By quick application of emergency brakes on the part of the lighted machine, a mishap was prevented. The man driving the unlighted car was at fault in this case. Hardly an evening goes by when some motorist does not find himself in the same fix. It seems that a light properly placed at the entrance to Elm street would help in lessening the danger on this exceptionally busy corner.

Train No. 75, due to leave the Central Vermont station at 3:25 p. m. to meet the northbound at Montpelier Junction at 4:05 p. m., was held 15 minutes at the station yesterday afternoon in order that the wrecking crew detachment, which was sent from St. Albans to clear the car of granite at the turntable pit from yesterday morning's disaster, might reach the railroad yards. The wrecking crew consisted of an engine, supply car and derrick car. They commenced work soon after their arrival in the city and did not finish moving the granite and hoisting the car from the turntable pit to the tracks until 8 o'clock. The crew returned to St. Albans last night. Workmen were set to work this morning to repair the damaged turntable and will have it in condition to use within a short time.

Our Twenty Fourth Anniversary Sale

BLANKETS

Began Tuesday, September 5, and Will Close Saturday Evening, September 9

All departments are now stocked for fall and winter business. If you have any desire to see new fall goods, this is the largest assortment you will see in this part of Vermont.

This sale gives you a chance to buy from departments advertised in this sale at a liberal discount. In many instances at a price less than wholesale cost to-day.

Later when prices are one-quarter more these prices will look good to you. Every purchase that you make this season will be a money saver.

These sales are always so good that they are never forgotten.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 7

Wool Dress Goods and Silks

In this sale are all of our Silk and Wool Dress Goods. This makes this one of the best opportunities to buy Dress Goods that you have ever had. We allow a liberal discount on all kinds. This means our whole stock. Kinds that are not costing less, but a great deal more.

As we have said, this sale is for you this time, and not for us. It is to keep up our custom of the past 23 years by letting our trade have an Anniversary Sale—a sale where they can buy the best goods at a liberal saving.

Serges, yard-wide, all wool, very fine; all colors and Black—In this sale at 55c

Storm Serges 44 inches wide in Navy, Brown, Green, Wine, Cardinal, Copenhagen and Black—These are our best dollar Serges, that by Nov. 1st will be $1.25. On this one day, per yard 90c

Silks—The same discount as on wool dress goods. This means Silk Poplin, Messalines, Crepe de Chine, Chiffon, Taffetas, Georgette, Crepe, Satins, and Plain Taffeta. One of the largest lines in this part of Vermont.

All of our Fancy Silks, Plaids and Stripes in this sale.

Plan your Dress Goods purchases for this day and save money.

This is a good time to provide for school wear.

Out these goods by a New Idea Paper Pattern to save material.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 8

Blanket Day

This makes 24 years that this Blanket Sale has been regularly held, each year growing larger.

Blankets are very scarce—not enough on the market to meet all demands. Ours were bought early. This means more to you than to us. It means a full assortment at prices better than you would see them if we had put off our buying. This assortment will appeal to you.

Beginning with the cheapest Blanket up to the very best Wool Blankets, we are making for this one day a liberal discount. This, added to what prices will be before September closes, will give you the largest saving on Blankets that you have ever had.

One lot of Extra Size Gray Blankets—Our $1.75 Blanket this one day, per pair $1.39

One lot of Genuine Imported Scotch Wool Blankets—These are extra size, 68 by 86 inches. Our $10.00 Blanket. This one lot, at, per pair $8.75

One lot of Genuine Imported Scotch Blankets, 66 by 82, all wool—These are our $8.75 Blanket. This one lot, at, per pair $7.75

No more Scotch Blankets until after the war. Doubt if you can find a pair in any store in Vermont outside of here.

All of our Bed Comforters in this sale at a liberal discount. This means the whole Comforter stock.

Above goods must not be taken out on memorandum before day of sale. They must be here as advertised. This sale is not like a profit-bearing sale. It brings the trade to see NEW FALL GOODS—the largest lot that we have ever shown. Read carefully and do not get mixed up on the day of each sale.

While attending this sale, you should by all means visit our Bargain Basement. Go to our Garment Department and see what smart dressed ladies are to wear this fall. Take a look at our Silks and Wool Plaids and Stripes. See them before others. Be one of the ladies of our town to be posted on fall materials and styles.
